STATE BEGINS ITS FIRST BIG LAW SUIT

Northwestern Road Is Defendant in Action Begun at Madison
This Morning.

[SPECIAL TO THE GAZETTE.]
Madison, Wis., June 12.—At 9 o'clock today in the Dane county court, before Judge Stevens, was called the first of the series of cases in which Governor La Follette declares that he will collect more than $442,000 in back taxes from the railroad companies operating in Wisconsin. Preparatory to introducing their evidence, in support of their claim that they have not incorrectly reported their gross earnings, the railroads have brought great quantities of books, accounts, rate sheets and many other documents. The books brought by the North-Western road alone fill an entire express car. Other roads have somewhat smaller quantities. The suits are brought to collect penalties of $10,000 from each road for the failure to correctly report their gross earnings for the purpose of taxation. Governor La Follette declares that the investigation made by Railroad Commissioner Thomas pursuant to a bill passed by the legislature two years ago shows that the roads gave large rebates and left them and other items out of their reports. The roads claim that such items as they left out of their reports are properly omitted, and that they ought not to be taxed on fictitious earnings, never received, but allowed to shippers in the process of "adjusting" rates. The first case is that of the North-Western road. This will be a test, will be carried to the supreme court, and will obviate the trial of the other cases. Attorney General Sturdevant and H. W. Chynoweth represent the state and Lloyd W. Bowers appear for the North-Western.

LAST DAY FOR REAL WORKING

Longest Session Of State Legislature Drawing To A Close Very Rapidly.

ADJOURNMENT FINALLY IN SIGHT

Senate Was Slow at Opening But Has Made Up Time
Since It Got Down To The Real Hard Work Of The Session.

[SPECIAL TO THE GAZETTE.]
Madison, Wis., June 12.—This is the last hard working day of the Wisconsin legislative session of 1905. It has been the longest session in the history of the state and the largest number of bills ever considered have been introduced and disposed of in the months intervening since the second week in January. The long session was caused in part by the unprecedented number of bills, for these could have been disposed of at least three weeks earlier had not other things caused delay. The railroad rate commission bill was the biggest factor in prolonging the session. The senate railroad commission deliberated for weeks after the hearings on the preliminary measures had been completed and the result is declared by most legislators as warranting the long and careful consideration that important piece of legislation received. While this bill was hanging fire it was usual for other controversial matters to be laid over from time to time and it was not until this bill had passed the senate that the upper house settled down to clearing away the decks preparatory to finishing up. The assembly, being overwhelmingly administration in factional complexion, quickly passed a railroad commission bill, as well as almost every other so-called La Follette measure. Then the populous branch worked on other measures and was far ahead of the senate. The senate seemed lazy in the early weeks of the session, but the assembly was diligent, perhaps with less care considering and passing bills of large importance and "putting it up to the senate" to consider them as though introduced anew. Practically all the important measures have now been disposed of and in the day that remains before the close of business Wednesday noon, the remaining formalities of passing and concurring in bills that have been thrashed out will be attended to. The last three days of the week are for the executive to pass upon measures and the session will adjourn sine die Saturday.

Both houses of the legislature worked late last night clearing up the remnants of business, so as to get through with business Wednesday, and adjourn sine die Saturday.

Last Debate Won.
The last long debate in the senate for this session was on the question of the exemption of credits from taxation. Senator Martin proposed an amendment taxing the mortgages and similar property at one-half of one per cent. He and Senators Hatten, Huddell and McMillan argued for it and Senators Whitehead, Bird and Kreutzer opposed it. The amendment was lost by a vote of 16 to 13 and the original bill exempting such property from all taxation was also lost by a vote of 14 to 15, this result being caused by Senators Stevens and Froemming, who opposed any legislation on the subject. The situation then is that the present unsatisfactory and ineffective mortgage tax law will stand unchanged. The senate occurred in the constitutional resolution to provide that after 1912 none other than full-fledged American citizens shall be allowed to vote in Wisconsin. The assembly worked on an unimportant routine, closing up business.

Whitehead's Speech.
Senator Whitehead vigorously opposed the amendment, declaring that he wondered that a senator could propose, in an argument for equal taxation, that certain property be taxed at a rate of one-half of one per cent, when the average rate of general property of the state was 11 mills on the dollar and local rates are sometimes as high as three per cent. He opposed the proposition as one calculated to increase the interest rates and drive money out of the state and interfere with the flow of capital into this commonwealth for improvement and development of sections in great need of capital. Senator McMillan spoke in favor of the amendment, and Senators Bird and Kreutzer in opposition. Senator Bird made the argument that it is settled and inevitable rule that money commands the net rate of income and if process of loaning money is submitted to any expenses by reason of taxes or otherwise, it is inevitable and must be so, that the rate charged for the loan will be increased. The borrower must pay in the end all the charges and taxes whatsoever on the loan, or he will not be able to borrow money he needs.

Host's Bill.
The senate last night concurred in the bill of Commissioner Host to require the old line "mutual" life companies to distribute their surplus among the policyholders not less frequently than once in five years. This changes a law of 1871, which Commissioner Host ruled required the distribution, but the Equitable resisted and the supreme court held that the law favored the companies. The legislature has now changed the law so as to remove all doubt. This law will affect $40,000,000 held by various companies for policyholders in

CAREFUL SURVEY OF THE STREETS

STREET COMMISSIONER TELLS OF REPAIRS

THAT ARE NEEDED AT ONCE

Also Makes Suggestions Regarding Stone-Crusher and Certain Defective Culverts—Talks on Weeds.

Street Commissioner James Sennett last evening favored the council with a careful survey of the existing condition of the various streets and bridges of the city. What he has to say regarding the weeds on vacant lots and in the streets, the dumping of gravel in gutters, bridge repairs needed, and defective culverts, is particularly pertinent and interesting. The report in full is as follows:

To the Mayor and Common Council of the City of Janesville:

Gentlemen: In looking over and along the streets of our city I find that a great many of them need repairing. I also find that the macadamized streets are in good condition. This shows that when we make new streets, so far as possible, they should be made by macadamizing them except on the main business streets, where brick should be used.

The gutters along many of the streets are in very poor condition. This is due to the large amount of gravel dumped in them for the purpose of building cement walks. I would suggest to remedy this defect that in order to be passed forbidding the dumping of gravel for this purpose in the gutters and that cement walk contractors or other be required to dump their gravel at least three feet from the gutters. If this is done it will leave the gutters open and clean for the water of the heavy rains to run in. A further damage is done by permitting the gravel to be dumped in the gutters, namely, it stops the gutters and causes the water to flow around them into the street, thereby oftentimes cutting into the middle of the street and washing badly in some places.

The tile driveways in a great many places have helped to cause this trouble. They are too small to carry the water of the heavy rains and they become filled up and in that way the gutters are obstructed. I would recommend that so far as it can be done that these tile driveways be done away with and in their place that brick and cement driveways be constructed.

Culvert Too Small.

The tile culvert of the Chicago & North Western Railway Company, located at the intersection of West Milwaukee and Pleasant streets is too small to carry the water which it is expected to carry off. This culvert becomes filled and the water flows back from the tiling running from the yard west on Milwaukee street and the water lodges in front of the Fountain House and the Madison House and soaks into the collars of these places. This has caused a good deal of inconvenience and should be remedied. I would suggest that a catch-basin be put in at the Fountain House and this catch-basin be connected by tiling with the new sewer on Pleasant street if that sewer is large enough to carry the water. This may not be a practical suggestion but our engineer could be asked to pass upon it. If it is practical it would do away with all the surplus water which now accumulates after heavy rains and stands on West Milwaukee street in front of the places named. At least some plan should be made to dispose of this water and drain this street properly.

Center Ave. Gutters.

The gutters on Center Ave. are too small to convey the large amount of water which is expected to pass along them south to Western Ave. As it is, when we have heavy rains the gutters overflow and the water runs in the middle of the street over to the John Bray building on the corner of Center and Western avenues. It is my opinion that the tiling along Center avenue should be removed and open gutters constructed wide enough to carry the water. If the change I have suggested was made it would be a large saving to the ward funds. It would save the washing in the street and the expense of repairing and it would save the expense of cleaning the tile gutters which is a considerable amount.

Cleaning Gutters.

It seems to me that the cheapest way to clean the gutters would be to use the grader for that purpose on streets except those that are macadamized. Of course near the aprons and like places the cleaning will have to be done by hand. I would suggest that instead of the refuse being hauled to some far away dumping ground that it be graded and leveled on the streets. A large part of the expense of cleaning the streets comes from the long haul that must be made in hauling away the soil from the gutters that could be leveled and graded on the streets without any damage whatever to the street.

Street Sweeper.

I am not in favor of a city street sweeper. Even if we had one it would be necessary to clean the gutters of the business streets by hand, owing to the number of electric company poles in the gutters and as for macadamized streets, it is only necessary

SILENT ON THE SUNDAY ISSUE

CITY COUNCIL TOOK NO ACTION LAST EVENING.

MANY IMPORTANT MATTERS

Were Disposed Of, and the Big Gallyery Gathered to Witness a Fight, Was Mildly Entertained.

Last night's session of the common council was a disappointment to many of the large crowd of spectators who expected that something would be done regarding the Sunday closing of places of amusement and were anticipating a lively tilt between the ministers who were present and the aldermen supposed to be behind the movement to repeal the measure now in force which provides a fine from $10 to $100 for those who seek to entertain at a price on the day of rest. The silence on this subject was so dense that many were completely mystified. The license committee to which the petition of the ministers against repeal was referred made no report as to the disposition of that document. By a test vote during the recess, however, it was discovered that a repeal measure could not carry and the matter was dropped—perhaps for good, perhaps until a more auspicious time.

Weeds and Grass.

In my inspections of the streets of the city I find that where there are vacant lots and narrow sidewalks grass and weeds have grown very high, so much so as to interfere with travel where after heavy rains and dew when people passing along the streets will get their feet and clothes wet. This should be remedied and the weeds in the gutters on all the streets, it seems to me, ought to be cleaned out and the grass cut where it is necessary to do so.

Regarding the Bridges.

I find that our bridges are in fairly good condition, though some of them need repair. The Spring Brook bridge, while not in a dangerous condition, should be repaired as soon as possible. Some new piling and caps are needed for the repaving of this bridge. The Slingers are good. The piling that had the back left, are badly decayed. The Monterey and Jackson street bridges need new decking as the planks in some places are worn almost through. It is necessary to deck the Monterey bridge as soon as possible. The South Vista avenue bridge also needs considerable repairs.

The contractors of cement walks should be required to draw away all the old concrete, cement and old boards and to clean up the gutters and leave no obstructions in the streets anywhere after they are through with their work.

Respectfully,

JAS. SENNETT,

Street Commissioner.

Mildred Grover with her pickaninny, furnished a delightful musical program which brought forth much applause. Clifford and Orth, a comedy team, provoked roars of laughter with their jokes and songs. Bandy and Williams, buck dancers, scored a hit with their stunts. The songs rendered by George Hatch this week are entitled "Why Won't They Play With Me?" and "The Voice of the Hudson," and, as usual, please. The short films shown by the projectoscope are humorous.

By a test vote during the recess, however, it was discovered that a repeal measure could not carry and the matter was dropped—perhaps for good, perhaps until a more auspicious time.

Weeds and Grass.

In my inspections of the streets of the city I find that where there are vacant lots and narrow sidewalks grass and weeds have grown very high, so much so as to interfere with travel where after heavy rains and dew when people passing along the streets will get their feet and clothes wet. This should be remedied and the weeds in the gutters on all the streets, it seems to me, ought to be cleaned out and the grass cut where it is necessary to do so.

Regarding the Bridges.

I find that our bridges are in fairly good condition, though some of them need repair. The Spring Brook bridge, while not in a dangerous condition, should be repaired as soon as possible. Some new piling and caps are needed for the repaving of this bridge. The Slingers are good. The piling that had the back left, are badly decayed. The Monterey and Jackson street bridges need new decking as the planks in some places are worn almost through. It is necessary to deck the Monterey bridge as soon as possible. The South Vista avenue bridge also needs considerable repairs.

The contractors of cement walks should be required to draw away all the old concrete, cement and old boards and to clean up the gutters and leave no obstructions in the streets anywhere after they are through with their work.

Respectfully,

JAS. SENNETT,

Street Commissioner.

GERMAN TROUPE AT WEST SIDE THEATRE

Dorrie Sisters Head Week's Bill of Vaudeville Entertainment—Other Good Acts.

This week at the West Side theatre the Dorrie Troupe, of four girls head the bill. The entertainment they present is a typical German specialty act of music, dancing, marching and sword play, and their songs are sung in the tongue of the Fatherland. Last evening the dancing of one member of the company and the instrumental musical numbers pleased most. Mildred Grover with her pickaninny, furnished a delightful musical program which brought forth much applause. Clifford and Orth, a comedy team, provoked roars of laughter with their jokes and songs. Bandy and Williams, buck dancers, scored a hit with their stunts. The songs rendered by George Hatch this week are entitled "Why Won't They Play With Me?" and "The Voice of the Hudson," and, as usual, please. The short films shown by the projectoscope are humorous.

OLD AGE.

Comes to Everyone, But Its Visits May Be Postponed.

Old age is not a question of years. Some men are old at forty, others young at sixty.

It's a mighty hard proposition to look young, no matter how young you feel if your hair is falling out and your head becoming bald.

Perhaps you are tired trying ineffectual remedies for this evil.

We don't blame you if you are.

Why not try an effective one for a change?

Signs for the Streets

Ald. Fish also presented for inspection a number of sample street-signs. The metal ones could be purchased for $30 a hundred and the wooden ones for $25. On a tour of the central part of the city Sunday Mr. Fish said that he could find but three street signs in place. It was his idea to put up a few hundred each year until the city highways should all be properly marked again. Some of his colleagues thought the entire work should be done at once and he was asked to present an estimate of the number needed, ascertain if better terms could be procured elsewhere, and report at a subsequent meeting.

Flagman on Boul. McKee

Alderman Brockhaus called up for his third reading the ordinance requiring the St. Paul railroad on penalty of a $100 fine and an additional penalty of the same amount for every 24 hours the regulation might go unheeded after notice had been served, to keep a flagman at the McKee boulevard crossing from 6 a. m. to 10 p. m. The measure passed without opposition.

License for Theatres

The rules were suspended to permit the third reading and passage of an ordinance introduced by Ald. Murray providing for the collection of a $10 annual license of managers of play-houses in lieu of the $2 to $10 license which is supposed to be exacted from individual entertainers but which has always been dead-letter. Under the present measure the manager of the entertainment hall may take out the annual license and the people who appear under his roof are thereby exempted.

Surface Water Problem

For several years the surface water at the Five Points has presented a problem that has gone unsolved. An effort is now to be made to dispose of it satisfactorily and to this end Mayor Hutchinson appointed a committee consisting of City Attorney Burpee, City Engineer Kerch, Aldermen Dulin and Merritt to confer with the proper officials of both railroads and work out some feasible plan in regard thereto. "Alderman Baumann was the only one absent from last night's session.

Forty Years Ago...

Janesville Daily Gazette, Tuesday, June 13, 1865.—A New Route to Madison.—We understand that within a few days a train has been put on the Beloit and Madison road, by which passengers leaving here on the Afton stage, soon after seven, will reach Madison at about 10 o'clock in the morning. This will frequently prove a great accommodation to persons desirous of visiting the capitol on business, and returning the same day.

Cape Cod Cranberries.—Messrs. Doty Brothers have just received a lot of Cape Cod cranberry plants, and having more than they wish for their own use, will dispose of a part. The excellence of these plants is that they will grow on dry ground while ordinary plants only grow on swampy lands. The berries are very large and nice and the yield is enormous. Those who want any must call within two days or the plants will be set out.

The Fourth of July Meeting.—If we may judge by the number in attendance at the meeting in the court room last evening, to consider matters pertaining to the Fourth of July, we should come to the conclusion that the business men of Janesville had just put their ears back and refused utterly to draw in the traces. In other places quite the reverse seems to be the rule of action and this class of citizens are foremost in this matter. There ought to be a decision at once of just precisely what we will do as a town in the premises and set about it at once. If it is to be a basket picnic with speeches and music, so let it be recorded; or if we are to have a pageant, we cannot commence the preparations too soon. What shall it be gentlemen?

The meeting last evening adjourned to 8 o'clock tonight at the same place.

Reception of the Soldiers in Milwaukee.—Seven hundred and twenty soldiers, belonging to the 12th, 15th, 17th, 37th and 38th regiments were handsomely entertained in Milwaukee in the building erected for the Soldiers Home Fair on Saturday morning last. They were on their way to Madison to be paid off and discharged.

DRY GOODS

Painless, Natural Childbirth.

Baby's coming into the world should be preceded by a certain preparation on the part of every woman who expects to become a mother. She owes it as a duty to her unborn babe, and to herself, her duty to her unborn babe is to use every means within her power to aid his entrance into the world. Baby cannot help himself in this ordeal, therefore mother must. He has a hard enough time after his arrival, so let us make his coming easy. His health in after life depends greatly upon the manner of his coming: would you have your child a cripple, or would you have him a tower of strength? Strong men are but grown-up children; a famous surgeon in Vienna is devoting his life-work to the cure of little helpless cripples deformed by birth; do not allow your child to become a cripple.

Mother's Friend

Is a liniment which will forestall any possibility of accident at birth; that is, it relaxes all the abdominal muscles and tissues, and permits of an easy access to the child. It eases the mother's pain, and so assists nature that when baby comes he starts out in life with a strong will able to fight life's battles and to bloom into a strong pure manhood that is the comfort and delight of every true mother's heart.

THE FRENZIED LAWSON.

It is doubtless true that Thomas W. Lawson has no rival as a disturber in the financial world. When he commenced his "Frenzied Finance" crusade, people flocked to his standard and for a time he appeared to be about all there was left of honesty in the realm of finance.

But the mask has been removed and Lawson today is generally regarded as a disgruntled financier, lacking the ability to keep pace with his associates.

The reaction which always follows an erratic campaign, has set in, and Lawson, unable to stand the pressure, comes to the surface in a new role, noted for frenzy of pronounced type.

The scheme is thus described by United States Treasurer Ellis H. Roberts in an address to the Kansas Banking association. Mr. Roberts sizes up the situation in its true light and his estimate of Lawson will be generally endorsed. He says:

"Mr. Thomas W. Lawson is attracting notice by his assaults on Wall Street and what he calls 'the system.' He proposed as a master movement in his warfare the withdrawal of all deposits from all banks on a single day. Such a run would call for all the currency in all institutions. For the deposits are twelve and a half billion dollars, five times the money in circulation, two billions and a half. Only a marvelous imagination could offer the suggestion. To carry it out would be as easy as to fling up all the streams, to breathe up all the air.

"The depositors in commercial banks, we remember are also in large part borrowers. They agree to leave ten per cent or twenty per cent to their credit against their loans. When they draw their funds they must pay their debts. In savings banks, the loans are as a rule subject to early call. A demand for deposits would fall at once on the borrowers, who perhaps have been gathering in their funds to wipe off their mortgages. No sharp line divides the debtors and creditors. A run on all deposits would call for the liquidation of all debts.

"If it were possible to draw out all the money in all the banks, what could be done with it? You have seen excited people before—a single institution. One gets his cash, hesitates, goes home, hides it away, returns and wants to put it back. Or a thief waylays him, or a promoter captures him, or he falls into riotous living. On a wholesale scale, the scheme would mean anarchy, ruin, not for speculators only, but for every industry and every interest.

"The structure, overthrown, however would not be the currency; it would be credit in every branch; it would be production of which the currency is an instrument. Mr. Lawson may be a Sampson, and the system may be a Goliath, and the pillars of its gates under his hands. But the financial heavens are far above his reach; they will not fall at his back to let him pick up quail.

"However doughty he may be, and however his battles may rage, he can no more affect the currency than he can the planet Jupiter."

WATERED STOCK.

The senate is to be congratulated for its work at the end of last week in killing the administration measure on watered stock. This measure sought to prevent railroads from issuing stock and was an attempt to dictate and manage the finances of these corporations.

The governor is the recognized peer in the field of politics. "He gets there with both feet" as a manipulator of men, who regard his will as supreme, and his word as law on all political propositions, but as a captain of industry, or a successful financier he is a gun of small calibre and theoretical mechanism.

The men who handle the great railway interests of the country, are not politicians. The salary of a governor is not tempting and the empty honors of office are never considered.

But these men are fully developed along other lines. They possess intelligence and honesty, combined with rare executive ability.

They are engaged in a calling which places them in the front rank of development. They are in close touch with the progress of the age, and when it becomes necessary to open up new territory in the interests of civilization these are the men who are expected to do it.

They are not promoters of mining schemes or any other class of fake enterprises. The property they represent, in liberal quantity, is tangible property and when an issue of stock is ordered for extensions or improvements the money resulting from its sale is honestly invested for the benefit of the stockholders and no taint of graft follows.

Some people have an idea that when a corporation increases its capital stock, that the money received for the new stock is divided up by the directors and officers of the company. The proposition is too silly to be entertained for a moment, and yet there are men in Madison today attempting to represent the people who appear to be unacquainted with this notion.

Every dollar received by a corporation from the sale of what is sometimes called watered stock, goes into the treasury of the company to be used for the benefit of all the stockholders.

If a railroad company issues $5,000,000 of this kind of stock and invests the money in extensions or improvements, the plant increases in value in proportion to the investment, and no one is defrauded.

When a legislature attempts to throttle legitimate business, as the Wisconsin legislature attempted to do last week in dealing with the railroads of the state, it has outlived its usefulness, and should adjourn without date.

THE TRADING STAMP.

The trading stamp people in all parts of the country have been more or less disturbed for some months and recent experiences in Chicago, Milwaukee and Janesville indicate that the mania for this expensive and useless fad has about run its course.

Many merchants find themselves asking the question, "Why should I give away with every purchase a liberal percentage of profit, in the shape of a premium?" and the only answer is an unsatisfactory echo. The only argument which satisfies in any degree, is that "my neighbor does it, so I am compelled to," but this is not logical.

There are plenty of merchants in Janesville, and every other town, who do a successful business without the use of premiums. They use other methods of advertising which are more effective and less expensive.

The trading stamp is simply an advertising fad, and many cities have long since abandoned it. The merchants of Janesville should get together, as they have in other towns, and agree to abandon the scheme. It is a tax which no small dealer can afford to pay, and it makes a big hole in the profits of the larger houses.

Half the money spent in legitimate newspaper advertising, backed up by the goods, and courteous attention to customers, would produce better results. The newspapers of Janesville cover the field completely in both the city and county. They are the best possible medium for reaching the people and if the merchants will cut loose from all fake schemes, and invest thought and a little money in judicious advertising, results would be both surprising and gratifying.

When the world is ideal every young man, and every other man, will have a home which will be his paradise. Until that time the saloon and vaudeville theatre will continue to furnish cheap substitutes.

The trading stamp, like all other fake advertising schemes, is an ex-

LETTER WRITTEN ON THE REAL TROUBLES

Mr. George S. Parker Has Received a Letter from Christiana Correspondent.

In view of the recent happenings in Norway and Sweden and the present rupture of the two countries, the following extract from a letter written recently to George S. Parker by A. C. Christensen of Christiana, Norway, on the situation will be interesting:

"We have still very hard times. No life at all in any line of trade, and the political situation does better the affairs. I think you have seen in your papers that a controversy is going on between Sweden and Norway, because Sweden will not allow Norway to have its right in the union, but act as Sweden had right to rule Norway or Sweden to it in its local matters. Norway have suffered under this for many years, but do not intend to continue. Of course Norway do not want a war, it only claims its right according to the fundamental law. We do not hope neither that Sweden will proclaim the war, but sure we can never be, as it was very near that they had done it in 1895, at least we preparations made. It would be the worst thing that could happen both lands, and would be a chance that Russia would like, and we hope the Swedish will have enough of good sense to avoid such a thing to happen."

MINOR BUSINESS OF CITY COUNCIL

Customary Budget of Orders Relating to Streets and Sidewalks Passed Upon Last Evening.

There was the usual budget of orders for street and sidewalk repairs presented and passed at the council meeting last evening. The clerk was instructed to serve notice on the owners of lots 2447 in Pease's 2d addition to build standard sidewalks. Owners of lots 1 and 2 in Block 13 of the Rockport addition and lot 5, block 4, in the Railroad addition were given permission to build four-foot walks.

The street commissioner was instructed to repair South Main street to Racine, Racine to Gleneta, Forest Park, Logan avenue, Court, South Second, South Third, and the west side of Glen between Galena and Washington.

Brick crosswalks on Academy between West Milwaukee and Dodge, and across Gold street at the intersection of Western avenue were also called for. The city clerk was instructed to issue the customary notice of the sale of paving bonds. He was likewise instructed to draw an order on the treasurer for the payment of the $75 appropriated annually for Memorial Day expenses. The work of Hayes Bros. in grading Linden avenue was accepted. High and Williams were accepted as city streets.

"Whistle Wouldn't Stop" Between eleven and twelve o'clock last evening the mournful wail of a locomotive whistle that was being tested in the St. Paul roundhouse made sleepers awake with a start and inquire if the crack of doom was at hand. After the new fangled arrangement had been started it could not be stopped and the outrageous music, punctuated with shrill, inquiring shrieks from other engines near and far, continued for a half hour without a break.

THE GRADUATION EXERCISES OPEN

FIRST OF THREE PROGRAMS WILL BE RENDERED TONIGHT

IN HIGH SCHOOL BUILDING

Class Exercises and Scientific Theses and Experiments To Be Given.

Tonight the graduation exercises at the high school open with the class night and science program. Commencement marks the attainment of an end for which those who will receive diplomas Thursday evening have been striving for the past four years, for which they have studied and worked, and of which they dreamed of, before entering high school when they poured over geographies, grammars, arithmetics and readers in the prescribed course of study and their part in the commencement program is their final participation in the work of the high school student. From this point are exempt, unless it be an impossibility for them to appear, but they will take part in various ways. Some will represent their class with an exercise, others will have roles in the play tomorrow evening, some will render musical numbers, some perform and explain scientific experiments, some deliver orations or essays and still others present theses.

Interesting Experiment

This evening the class exercises, with the exception of the song and the theses and experiments in the scientific realm will comprise the program. Lynn Cory's portion in the commencement will be a cornet solo and he will render "The Holy City." One of the most interesting, due to the novelty of the discovery and the experiment which will accompany the number, will be that on Thermite by LeRoy Eller. This substance is a mixture of aluminum and iron oxide and when ignited reaches a temperature of 5,400 Fahrenheit. With it, it is possible to melt any metal and only a specially prepared crucible with a magnesia lining can be used. The discovery of Thermite was made but three years ago and the substance is comparatively unknown. The experiment which will be performed is the welding of a wagon axle, an inch in diameter, by pouring the ignited Thermite around the ends to be placed together. About three pounds will be used in this and any more than that amount would melt off the steel so that the welding would be impossible. Instructor Arbutnot, under whose tutelage the thesis was prepared and the experiment will be made was compelled to send to New York to secure the Thermite. The other theses will be interesting and new in subject and material, while the class parts as usual will be full of humor and greeted with pleasure.

NORTHERN PAPER LAUDS FORMER JANESVILLE MEN

One of the leading industries of our city is the firm of Pendleton & Gilkey, engaged in the manufacture of cedar posts, shingles, railroad ties and telegraph poles, says the Oconto County Enterprise.

They operate the two mills, comprising the Spies plant in this city—a shingle mill, and planing mill—besides their yards. Their yearly output of shingles from one double block machine is between seven and eight millions. At present their stock of poles, posts and ties is valued at $100,000 or over, their yearly shipments of the same being valued at about $100,000.

The majority of this stock is driven down the river to their mills and yards. They operate two cedar camps, one at Crooked Lake and one on the Peshigo brook, about ten miles from Mountain. One camp banks on the Waupese and the other on the Peshigo brook, both streams being tributary to the Oconto river. They employ over sixty men here in the city the year around.

The head office of the company is located at Minneapolis, at which place H. S. Gilkey stays most of the time. F. R. Pendleton of the company is located at Mukilton, Wash., where the company operates the largest saw mill on the Pacific coast.

The company's business here in the city is under the management of E. H. Gilkey. He is assisted by Harry McKinney, formerly of Janesville.

THIS MAN'S MYSTERIOUS POWER HEALS WHEN ALL OTHERS FAIL

DEFEATS DEADLY DISEASES

CURES HUNDREDS BY NEW AND MARVELOUS METHODS OF TREATMENT.

MAKES THE LAME WALK AND THE DEAF HEAR

AND PERFORMS OTHER SEEMING MIRACLES THAT PASS UNDERSTANDING—NO DISEASE HE MAY NOT CURE.

HAS HE SUPERNATURAL GIFTS?

DISCARDS USELESS DRUGS AND MEDICINES, YET HEALS HOPELESS INVALIDS PRONOUNCED INCURABLE BY PHYSICIANS.

Offers Services and Home Treatment Free of Charge to Rich and Poor Alike—Believes It His Duty to God and Man to Labor for the Sick and Afflicted Who Stand in Need.

New York, June 10.—(Special Correspondence).—The mysterious healing power of Professor Wallace Hadley of this city, which enables him to cure hopeless invalids when doctors, drugs and all other means have failed, has aroused widespread wonder and comment in all circles, physicians and scientists being as much in the dark for an explanation as those outside the medical profession.

Various attempts to discover this man's secret have failed, since he has refused to disclose the source of his most marvelous control over disease and his strange power to stay the clutch of death. Yet the proven facts and evidence show that in hundreds of instances when patients have been pronounced hopelessly incurable and given up to death by doctors, Professor Hadley has restored them to health so easily and quickly that it borders closely upon the miraculous or divine. These cures are the more strange and startling since it is known that he has discarded the useless drugs usually prescribed by physicians and accomplishes these marvels by a new and wonderful method of treatment unlike any heretofore known to science. Indeed, one woman goes so far as to state that Professor Hadley made her heart beat again in her body when she was prepared for the grave, and he has performed dozens of other seemingly miracles of healing in the face of death.

He claims that there is no disease he may not cure, and there is every reason to believe that this claim, standing as it is, is no more than the literal truth, since the records show that he has cured cancer, consumption, paralysis, deafness and other diseases supposed to be incurable, with the same ease and certainty that he cured stomach and kidney troubles, rheumatism, catarrh and the more common ailments that human flesh is heir to.

Powerful and peculiar as is Professor Hadley's ability, an almost equally remarkable thing about this man is the fact that he gives his treatment free of charge to rich and poor alike, devoting himself to the relief of afflicted humanity independent of fees or reward. He is moved as saying that he looks upon this power he possesses as a divine gift, and that he feels it is his duty as a Christian to help all who stand in need, without attempting to extort money for his services.

During a recent interview with Professor Hadley the eminent scientist firmly but courteously declined to discuss the secret of the power that he holds, but finally was induced to speak of some of the almost miraculous cures he has made. Speaking of the case of Joseph R. Stewart of Camden, N. J., one of his recent patients, Professor Hadley said: "Mr. Stewart had been told by various physicians that he had cancer of the stomach, complicated with kidney disease and bowel trouble; that his case was incurable and beyond the reach of medicine, and that he must make the most of what little life was left to him before death claimed him. He suffered most terrible agonies and was on the verge of the grave when he applied to me as a last resort. Notwithstanding what the doctors had said, I accepted the case, put him under my treatment and cured him. Today he is well and a good many dead men, and in a recent letter to me speaks of his cure as a miracle. Then there was the case of Mrs. M. W. Wagon of Centre Square, Pa. For twenty-five years she has been a hopeless invalid from complicated female troubles, many long months bedridden in hospitals, and pronounced hopelessly incurable and given up to die by all her physicians. But she put her faith in me, throw away her old medicines, and is today the picture of reality and perfect health. I took up the case of Mr. E. C. Bass of El Campo, Tex., after the doctors had given him up to death and could do nothing to revive him. Brought to this condition by the combined attack of kidney and liver diseases, dropsy and articular rheumatism, he suffered the torments of the damned and was almost insane with pain. Doctors and their medicines failed miserably. But I did not fail. I cured him. I restored him to life and health without his even knowing just how it was done. Then recently I received this letter from Mrs. E. C. McManus of Elison, Ala., which will give you an idea of how my patients regard my power to cure." The writer copied Mrs. McManus's letter, which, word for word, is as follows: "At last I am free from pain and disease; at last my health is restored, and to me it seems little short of a miracle that you could absolutely cure any one as sick as I was. When you made me well again you cured catarrh of the stomach and bowels, liver and kidney diseases, female trouble, and piles. All these you cured, as I am the living witness. I am so thankful to you for all you have done for me, for all you saved me from. I would have died without your treatment. May God bless you and your good work." And one from C. S. Harrell of Cato, Ark., reads: "You seem to know just what the trouble is and just how to cure it. Hereafter I am through with quack doctors and their useless drugs, for they are not worth a pinch of salt compared with your treatment. I was sick so long with liver and kidney disease and stomach trouble that all the blood seemed gone from my body, and I looked like a corpse ready for burial. I was so weakly and suffered so much and so constantly that I could not work on my farm as I used to do. Now I am feeling wonderfully different. You have driven the disease out of my body, as you promised, and I assure you that I am most thankful for it. I feel that you saved my life."

"Cases come to me from all over the country," continued the Professor, "that have baffled some of the best physicians and specialists, where one doctor has said the trouble was one thing and the next something else, until the patients were at a loss to know what disease they really were suffering from. Is it any wonder that sufferers fail to get well when they are not only treated for the wrong disease, but also given useless medicines on the hit-or-miss plan? But I am able to make a correct and careful diagnosis of each case that comes to me, and, seeing the cause, apply the power to cure."

"But how about those who cannot afford to come to New York to have you treat them?"

"It does not make the slightest difference. I cure them in their own homes just as easily and just as surely as if I went to them, or they came to me. Distance cannot weaken the healing power I have." All that any one who is ill in any way, from any cause, has to do is to write me a letter, addressing Wallace Hadley, M. D., office 1169 A.—No. 2255 Broadway, New York, telling me the disease they suffer from most, or their principal symptoms, age and sex, and I will give them a course of home treatment absolutely free of charge."

"Do you really mean that any one who is sick can write you to be cured, without paying you any money?"

"Yes, I mean just that. I believe that as a Christian it is my duty to God and man to help all who are in need. When I have been given the power to cure, I do not believe that I have the right to make any one waste his money on useless drugs when I can heal him without them. It is not alone the needless expense, but medicines and the surgeon's knife often do more harm than good, as even the medical profession will confess if they speak the truth. We all owe a duty to our fellow men we must all serve in one way or another. Where a rich man gives money, I give health. I am not a millionaire, but I am able to afford to do my share toward relieving the sufferings of mankind. And I am happy to give freely of my services wherever they are needed. And I am especially anxious to cure any poor mortal who has been told that his or her case is incurable, that there is no hope left on earth; or any one who has grown weary spending money on drugs and doctors in a vain search for health. If they will write to me and accept my offer there is not only hope, but an almost absolute certainty that they need be sick no longer. And it is a blessing that my power makes a letter to me do just as much good as a personal visit."

NORWAY TO SEND SPECIAL ENVOYS

INTERESTS OF PEOPLE DIFFER

Seceding State Claims That the Break With Sweden Came About Over Economic Matters, the Consular Service Being Entirely Inadequate.

Christiania, June 13.—Norway will at once send a special envoy to the great powers to seek their recognition of the independence of the country. Former President Loveland of the Norwegian cabinet of state at Stockholm is authority for the statement. He will be inducted into his new office as foreign minister Thursday and will then name the special envoy.

Regarding the probable difficulties to be encountered, Mr. Loveland declined to express an opinion, but he said that the envoy would convey the best wishes of Norway to the powers and would go to them with the highest hope as to the successful result of his mission.

"When our case is presented to the powers," said Mr. Loveland, "it will be seen that it is not one of antagonism to the principle of monarchies nor to a single monarchy. Norway has been a kingdom for many centuries and is proud of that fact. The dissolution of the union was purely on constitutional grounds.

"Our constitution existed prior to the union with Sweden, and when there came a conflict between the two peoples Norway chose to retain her constitution.

Split on Consular Service.

"Our difference with Sweden is, in the first place, of an economic character. Our commercial interests, and our entire economic policy differ from those of Sweden. While the diplomatic and consular services were based on the ideas governing the union of the two countries, they worked to the profit of Sweden rather than to that of Norway.

"Norway's merchant marine now ranks fourth among the nations and Norway no longer can afford to negotiate with foreign powers through Stockholm. The union, however, was dissolved only when the conflict became a question of our sovereignty."

"We hope the powers will make no mistake regarding our action. We have never tried to create danger for Sweden and will never seek to make difficulties for our sister country. We are acting for the benefit of the common interests of each other and for our common safety in the face of foreign danger.

Norway Ready to Fight.

"The action taken by the storting is irrevocable and the powers should realize the fact that Norway will fight before this action is reconsidered. The question of peace rests with Sweden, but the early recognition of our independence will be of interest to the powers as well as to ourselves.

"Immediately upon the dissolution of the union Norway informed Sweden of its willingness to open diplomatic relations, but we are jealous of our independence and of our future and will avoid all alliances and will not subject ourselves to the influence of any great power."

Mr. Loveland said he thought that Norwegian interests would not suffer during the interim in which the country would not be represented abroad. Fortunately, he said, Norway's biggest trade was with Great Britain, Germany, the United States and France, where for a short period consuls were not indispensable.

United States Favors Norway.

Washington, June 13.—Minister Grip, the plenipotentiary from Sweden and Norway, called at the state department to take leave of the officials before starting on a vacation trip to Norway. It is considered doubtful whether he will return even to present his letters of recall.

He is a Norwegian and will retire from the diplomatic service, which will become entirely Swedish as soon as Norway can arrange for a diplomatic service of her own. Mr. Grip has as yet received no official notice of the dissolution of the tie that bound the two kingdoms together. He expects to hear nothing until he reaches Norway.

The minister has not identified himself with the separation party, but his friends understand that if the resolution of separation is permitted to stand he will cast his lot with his native country and leave the service of the Swedish king.

There will be no difficulty in Norway getting recognition at Washington, as President Roosevelt treats questions of that kind as one of fact and not of either right or propriety.

DEATH ENDS TWO-YEAR SEARCH

Missing D. W. Ross Identified in Office of Coroner.

San Francisco, Cal., June 13.—A 2-years' search for D. W. Ross, a prominent contractor of this city, who vanished in August, 1903, has ended at the coroner's office. George P. Harris identified the photograph and description of an "unidentified man" killed by a street car in September, 1903, as that of the father of Dr. Frank C. Ross, the astronomer, now assistant director at Carnegie Institute, Washington, D. C., and Walter Ross, in the government service. The body, which has lain all the time in the potter's field, will be exhumed and given a fitting burial by the sons.
